A JURY OF HER PEERS:

Celebrate the Silver Anniversary of a Feminist Classic!

Chicago Cultural Center (Michigan & Randolph)
Saturday, March 19, 2005 from 1 to 5:30 PM

Schedule of Events

1 to 2:45 PM: Screening of A Jury of Her Peers + Q&A with filmmaker Sally Heckel

3 to 4 PM: Lecture by Patricia L. Bryan & Thomas Wolf, authors of Midnight Assassin: A Murder in America's Heartland (the real story on which Jury is based)

4 to 5:30 PM: Reception & Signing Party @ La Strada Ristorante with Sally, Patricia & Tom. (Books & tapes will be available for purchase. Light snacks will be served.)

Cost

The screening & the lecture are free. The cost of the reception is $25 per person paid in advance ($15 for seniors & students with ID) & $35 for all walk-ins.

Background

A Jury of Her Peers is based on a 1917 short story by Susan Glaspell, inspired by events covered during her years as a court reporter for the Des Moines Daily News.

Susan Glaspell wrote 13 plays, 14 novels, & more than 50 essays, articles & short stories. In 1931, she received a Pulitzer Prize, one of the first American women so honored. Glaspell was a true feminist pioneer!

Sally Heckel is a Manhattan-based independent filmmaker best known for her 1980 Oscar-nominated dramatic short A Jury of Her Peers.

Patricia Bryan is a professor of law at the University of North Carolina. Her husband & collaborator, Thomas Wolf, is a graduate of the Iowa Writer's Workshop.
